

As an internationally recognized DJ and emcee, Sticky Boots plays events from coast to coast and produces an award-winning syndicated mix show heard by millions on SiriusXM and radio stations from California to the Carolinas. He brings the same versatility, energy, and wealth of experience to your wedding. Sticky will carefully listen to your vision, then take that dream and curate an entertainment experience that aligns tradition and milestone moments with music, emotion, hospitality, and technology, all with a nightlife twist.

If you are looking for something exclusive and unique, these boutique-style options offer contemporary entertainment, and chest-pounding sound system, and a focus on club-style music mixing to keep the dance floor full. They are ideal for a modern couple needing a high degree of customization and elite emcee skills.
